WILL OF HENRY INGALLS.

I Henry Ingalls of Andover, in the County of Essex, in the prvince of the Mafsachufetts Bay, in New England, being aged, but of perfect mind and memory, Do make and ordain this my laft will and teftament, First of all, I commit my Soul into the hands of God that gave it, and my body I commit to the earth, to be Decently buried in the hope of a blefſed Refurrection at the laſt day, And as for my worldly eftate which God hath given me, I give and diſpoſe of it in the following manner and form—

Fiſt—I give to my Son Samuel, twelve Acres of land, belonging to his now dwelling houſe, and two Acres of meadow in the weſt Meadow,

Item—I give to my Son Henry ten Acres of Land out of the farm I live on, of which I formerly gave him a deed, which land lies on the South Eaſt ſide of my land, and is divided from the Land I have given to my Sons James and Joſiah by the following bounds, viz—On the Eaſt with a walnut ſtump, on the weſt with a red oak tree, marked and from thence running South Eaſt over Muſketo Brook, to a rock, Alſo I give him two Holes of meadow, commonly called Suttons Hole, and a hole of meadow on the Weſt ſide of my meadow, juſt by my meadow, and a piece of my great meadow going from the Maple point to the upland, Bounded with a great rock in the middle of the meadow, and from thence running to the upland.

Item—I give to my Son John, twenty Acres of upland within my farm, and lying on the north and Weſt Side of my Son James Land, the bounds between them are an Elm tree on the Eaſt Side where the fence now ſtands and running from thence Weſterly to a Walnut tree, from thence running Southerly to a ſtake and a heap of Stones, and then running Southeaſt to another heap of ſtones, and then running weſt to a heap of Stones on the outside of my land, Alſo I give him a piece of meadow in the middle of my meadow running by the Rock () three rods further than he commonly mows, and two holes of meadow on the Eaſt ſide of my meadow bounded with the upland.

Item—I give to my Son James my Homeſtead Houſe and barn and Orchard the homeſtead containing twenty Acres more or leſs, Alſo, all my meadow that I have not diſpoſed of by my will to my other Sons, Alſo, I give my Son James my right in the common and undivided Lands in Andover, and a pair of Oxen, and a cow, and I order my Son James to keep a cow for my wife, and to give her yearly ten buſhels of corn one half of it in Indian Corn, the other half Engliſh Corn, and five pounds of wool, five pounds of flax, and to provide her firewood, Alſo I give my wife the uſe of one End of my dwelling houſe, alſo I give her twenty pounds in common pay, to be paid by my Executor, alſo I give her yearly one hundred pounds of meat, my meaning is that what I have ordered my Executor to pay my wife yearly is to be paid only during her widowhood.

Item—I give to my Son Joſiah, twenty Acres of Land with in my farm Lying on the Southweſt Side of my land, Bounded on the northweſt corner with a black Oak marked and ſo running Eaſt to another black Oak marked (—) and a part of my meadow from a white Oak marked, on the eaſt ſide of my meadow to the upland.
